

15 The city slicker

a) Write the missing words from the box.
They come from the first part of the story.

- 1 Rob put on his shoes and jumped over the fence into the field.
- 2 Rip! He had a hole in his good trousers.
- 3 Rob ran along the track. Wally ran beside him.
- 4 Rob looked at his shoes. He really was in trouble now.

b) Now check on page 37 of your book.

16 Dumpers, bumpkins and slickers

a) The dumpers dump rubbish on the farm. What kind of rubbish?
Write your own ideas – as many as you can!

Plastic bags, (bottles, broken chairs, old bikes, shoes, newspapers, clothes, etc.)

b) What do you think 'country bumpkin' and 'city slicker' mean?

A country bumpkin is a person who (lives in the country and knows what to do there,) but doesn't know what to do in the city.

A city slicker is a person who (lives in town, has good clothes, and doesn't know what to do in the country.)

► SB p. 37

17 What do you think is really true?

a) Read and complete the sentences.

- 1 Molly phoned because she said she needed help. But she did all the work alone!

I think she really phoned Rob because she wanted to see him again.

- 2 Molly asked Rob if he wanted to drive, but Rob said "No."

I think Rob didn't say he couldn't drive because he was too proud.

- 3 Rob thought he wrote the number of the people who left rubbish.

But really he wrote down the number of the police car.

- 4 At the end Rob tells Alfie that life in the country is great.

I think Rob now likes life in the country because he likes Molly.

 b) Compare with a partner. Did you have the same answers?
